BISBEE'S LUXURY MAGAZINE FOR THE OUTDOOR ENTHUSIAST

IN THE BEGINNING...

Looking back at the 25 years of Bisbee's Black and Blue Tournament, makes you wonder how this amazing tournament was started. Robert Bisbee, "Bob" to everyone, was a very successful fuel dock and tackle store owner in Newport Harbor, California. Bisbee's Marine Fuels and Sportfishing Headquarters was the last stop before Southern California and points south. He was perfectly located. His store was the most logical and convenient stop for gas, an oil change, and last minute supplies for all who were traveling to Cabo and the great fishing found there. After he installed a single-sideband radio, he became the go-to guy; an integral part for all of Cabo's development and needs. Everyone came to rely on Bob, from broken down boats for spare parts to fishermen who needed alerting when their wives gave birth! He even acted as a mayday correspondent to the US Coast Guard who needed information about boats in trouble.

Bob's constant to-ing and fro-ing from Cabo eventually triggered a revelation: a fishing tournament that would stimulate his fast growing business empire (as well as utilizing the "beer muscle" generated by his friends at the local bars). The tournament started in the spring of 1982 with just six boats and, of course, Bob Bisbee was on the winning team with his oldest son, Bob Jr., as captain. Because the tournament was such a success and received such a good response, they decided to have another tournament in the fall for the black and blue marlin season. And the rest, as they say, is history.

Now the biggest cash prize in sea-angling competitions with over 150 boats from 50 states and over 30 countries and millions in prize money, the tournament has a huge impact on tourism. Bisbee's is the industry standard, the competitions others are measured against...

LAVISH, LUXURIOUS & LUCRATIVE

Revolutionizing the way we think about fishing, The Bisbee series of Tournaments focuses on the obsession of the lure and the draw of the big fish. Inspired by Bisbee's Marlin Tournaments and the vast audience devoted to this popular sport, our success continues to grow as we broaden our horizons with an in-depth view of the sophisticated side of fishing.
